Reprieve Breaks Down for First Time When Forced to Hear Death Warrant Read.

WINDSOR, Vt., Feb. 3.—Mrs. Mary M. Rogers, convicted of the murder of her husband, Marcus Rogers sentenced by the Court to die by hanging to-day, but reprieved until June 2 by the Governor of Vermont, broke down for the first time since her arrest, when she heard read the death penalty and then the reprieve granted yesterday by Gov.

When arrested, when convicted of the murder, and even when sentenced to die on the gallows, the woman failed to display a sign of emotion. Yesterday, when she received first news of the re-prieve, sne was apparently indifferent, but as the Sheriff to-day finished the reading of the document which gave her at least four months more of the, her eyes filled with tears and she was so overcome by emotion as to be un-able to speak.

Astor, Corpse Is Carried

Away in Secret,

Tavestigation was begun to-day by the police and District-Attorney in the case of Edmund A. Goodale, of Waterlow, N. Y., who was reputed to have been a millionaire twice over, whose mysterious death on Jan. 14, at the home of Mrs. Edwards, No. 166 West Forty-seventh street, has just come to light.

This man's body was carried through the street from the Edwards house by two friends, who held it in a position as though he were intoxicated and were attempting to waik. It was taken to a cab, which stood almost tunder the shadow of the Hotel Astor, and carried away to the establishment of the Stephen Merritt Burial Company.

In keeping secret the facts concerning the death of Mr. Goodale, a New York Coroner whose name has not been made public used his influence, and fictitious information was given out in Westertown, which declared that Mr. Goodale had died suddenly in a room in the New York Athletic Club, of which he was a member.

The Patrician $3.50 shoe for women, $2.45.

THERE'S more significance in the name Patrician than in the ordinary $3.50 shoes, and it's the first time, to our knowledge, they have ever been offered at the extraordinary price of $2.45—a net saving of $1.05.

The name PATRICIAN stands for the best leather and workmanship and it is a well-known fact that PATRICIAN is among the shoes that set the style, such as the S. C. S. sold exclusively by this store. They are not "seconds" or imperfect shoes—we want you to understand that thoroughly. They are the genuine Patrician, right out of perfect stock, and we can prove it by the trademark stitched in every shoe: the name FAUNCE @ SPINNEY, Lynn, Mass., celebrated for the renowned orthopedic last on which the Patrician is built, insuring comfort and ease to the wearer. To those standing or walking a great deal the Patrician shoe is a boon.

Clearing sale for girls and misses. 55 for girls' 12.75 dresses.

WHAT do you think of that for a special Saturday sale—It's the last call, beginning a lively clearing of all the garments remaining after inventory, and we have made every item for Saturday so strong in bargain character that we'll not carry over a single garment, a rigid rule of this house. If low prices will make them sell they'll nearly all go, for prices are certainly the lowest ever quoted.

That's not the only bargain we'll have ready for you on Saturday—not by any means—there's a score—and every one something positively extraordinary.

A 12%c sale of handkerchiefs up to 50c.

THE quality's that of fresh, clean 25c., 39c. or 50c. handkerchiefs, but they're crumpted and we're particular about clearing them all out Saturday. We want you to help us if you think the price inducement warrants you selecting a supply.

We guarantee them to be perfect quality-no "seconds" in the lot.

Of course you'll have to launder them, but what does that amount to, considering the saving of % and more, and the fact that you'd probably launder them even if they weren't crumpled.

Men—Everything below this line is for men.

HOWEVER impossible you think this value, we ask you in justice to yourself to let us prove that you are wrong. Not a clearing but a sale of fine new Spring negligor shirts—the kind men want to buy for business and dress wear. In week or two the exclusive stores will be talking up their merits at 100. 1.25 and 1.50. Some of them may be showing them now, but we believe we're first on the scene of Spring selling with the handsomest line of shirts likely to be shown the ensuing season. Don't say "There's plenty of time for shirts." Buy them to-morrow. They're so attractive that when you see their duplicates in the exclusive shop at 1.50 you're likely to be tempted to over-invest. Right now's the time to save on a supply for the Summer. They're the best shirts to sell at newest negligee shirts for Spring wear—of finest madras cloth, woven cheviots, in neat stripes and figures—hand laundered—attached and detached cuffs—a half dozen for $4.00—equal to custom made.

We always follow up stock-taking with a great clearing of men's clothing—this time it's our 20.00 & 25.00 suits & overcoats Saturday at 12.00

THEY'RE mighty big values, but we do not exaggerate, and do not carry over a single garment from one season to another. Not a suit or overcoat in this sale at 12.00 Saturday would sell for less than $20.00 under ordinary conditions, and we have as many of the 25.00 values as of the 20.00 suits and coats.

There's hardly a man that doesn't want a suit or overcoat (or both) to finish out the season, but bargains like these come so rarely even at this time of year that many do without new clothing rather than pay the prices usually asked.

These suits and overcoats are all hand tailored in the very smartest fashion, so they're sure to appeal to the man accustomed to paying 35.00 or 40.00 to the merchant tailors for made-to-measure garments.

It's not one of those picked-over stocks that make satisfaction a mere chance. We intend that every sale shall set a precedent, and to this end we provide for everybody—all sizes, various fabrics and a diversity of patterns to suit all tastes.

At the price-12.00-you can well afford to have an extra suit or overcoat in reserve, and here's the kind of a garment it will be: The overcoats at 12.00 are the finest expression of the high-art tailor's skill-Elysians, Vicunas and Friezes of the very best quality, and they're cut according to
